1 Rationale and Purpose

Academic advising is an integral part of the undergraduate education at the Colleges of Applied Sciences. Its primary purpose is to assist students in the development of meaningful educational plans. It also includes helping students formulate important questions about their own competence and interests and find the education pathways most suitable for them.

The desirable outcomes of this policy can be intellectual growth, effective communication, realistic self-appraisal, career choices, leadership development, healthy behaviours, meaningful interpersonal relations, independence, collaboration, appreciation of diversity, and achievement of personal and educational goals.

3 Policy principles and content

- 3.1 Academic advising is a major service offered to students at CAS to enhance their academic achievement.
- 3.2 As students come from different backgrounds and academic styles, special orientation in the form of continuous advising is needed for them to cope with the challenges of college life guaranteeing them a smooth academic life.
- 3.3 This process is implemented only in the specialization departments.
- 3.4 Each student shall be assigned an academic advisor by the Admission and Registration Centre after the Foundation Program, and assuming a shared responsibility, the process is expected to:
 - (a) Help the advisee to discover his/her potential and capabilities.
 - (b) Improve the advisee's awareness during the course registration process.
 - (c) Assist the advisee in exploring alternative paths to complete the study in case of disruption.

- (d) Give high priority and continuous follow up for advisees under probation
- (e) Promote student growth and development.
- (f) Discuss and clarify educational, career, and life goals.
- (g) Provide accurate and reliable information to advisees when needed.
- (h) Evaluate and monitor the student's academic progress and the impact on his/her achievement of goals.
- (i) Clarify institutional rules and regulations when required.
- (j) Draw students' attention to educational, institutional, and community resources and services.
- (k) Collect and distribute relevant data about student needs, preferences, and performance to be used in institutional decisions and policies.
